After his new contract for an average pay of $3.9 million, IU head football coach Tom Allen will be the university's highest paid employee. The IDS wanted to run the numbers on that.

TOM ALLEN is worth...

Almost three times the salaries of all IU Campus Bus Service employees combined

IU President Michael McRobbie's salary, six times

255,737 large 16" traditional pepperoni pizzas from Pizza X

 = 2,500 pizzas

Enough to give $74.10 to everyone in Memorial Stadium at capacity

 205 stipends for graduate student instructors

48,750,000 black and white pages from an IU printer...

...which end to end would stretch 1.1 times longer than the diameter of the Earth...

and three times as long as the Great Wall of China.

178 years of in-state tuition and 53 years of out-of-state tuition

To put this all into perspective, Allen is only the 11th highest paid coach in the Big Ten.
